

Production Run Sampling - Capsules/ Suppositories

Based on total weight of the entire production run, randomly select the lesser of 1% of the weight or 25 whole units (with a unit being one item), whichever is the lesser amount, rounded up to the nearest unit. The Department has determined that at least 10 units is the minimum required for full testing, regardless of production run size.

