Commissioner Brown moved to approve the consent calendar, excluding items III. B. 10) and III. B. 21). Commissioner Witt seconded the motion. All in favor. Motion carries.

With regard to items III. B. 10) Orca Digesters Inc. and III. B. 21) Wildwood Guitars, Commissioner Brown mentioned that the taxpayers paid the penalties and interest in full.

Shellie Hughes, Chief Deputy Executive Director, stated that often a taxpayer will pay in full and then request a waiver. If approved by the Tax Commission, the taxpayer will then receive a refund.

Commissioner Brown mentioned that the Department approved a waiver in 2019 and it has been 10 months before it made it to the Commission.

Melissa Gardner, on behalf of the Nevada Department of Taxation, stated that in the case of Wildwood Guitars, the Department attempted to notice the matter for the last meeting, but the taxpayer did not receive the notice. Sometimes it can take a little bit longer to receive payment, and with COVID, it has slowed things down as well.

Commissioner Brown motioned to approve the matters of Orca Digesters Inc. and Wildwood Guitars. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Witt. All in favor. Motion carries.

IV. DIVISION OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT SERVICES:
   A. Consideration for Approval of a Reappointment to the Appraiser Certification Board:
