Nevada Department of Taxation is Consolidating Mailroom Operations

Carson City, NV – The Nevada Department of Taxation is pleased to announce the consolidation of its mail operations to the Carson City office, effective November 22, 2024. This strategic move aims to streamline processes, enhance efficiency and improve service delivery for taxpayers across the state.

With the consolidation, all incoming and outgoing mail related to tax operations will be centralized in the Carson City office. This change is expected to significantly reduce processing times and enhance the overall experience for taxpayers, as well as improve coordination among staff.

Taxpayers and stakeholders must direct all correspondence to the following address:

Nevada Department of Taxation

3850 Arrowhead Drive
Carson City, NV 89706

This consolidation is part of the Department's ongoing efforts to modernize online services, optimize operations and adapt to the changing needs of the public. The Department remains committed to transparency and efficiency as it continues to serve the people of Nevada.

For more information, please visit the Nevada Department of Taxation's website at www.tax.nv.gov or contact our office directly.
