Nevada Revises Sales and Use Tax Deadlines Under AB 594

Carson City, NV — The Nevada Department of Taxation is informing businesses of an important update to the Sales and Use Tax remittance schedule as a result of Assembly Bill 594 (AB 594).

Beginning with the January 2026 filing period, businesses will be required to file and pay Sales and Use taxes by the 20th day of the month following the end of each taxable period. This change shortens the current filing window and is part of the state's effort to support timely and efficient revenue collection.

Previously, many businesses had until the last day of the month to file and pay. Under AB 594, that due date is moving forward by approximately ten days.

Key Details:

- New Due Date: Sales and use tax payments must be submitted by the 20th of the month following the reporting period. If the 20th occurs on a weekend or recognized holiday, payment shall be due on the next business day
- Effective Date: February 20, 2026.
- Who is Affected: All Nevada businesses required to file Sales and Use tax returns.

Businesses are encouraged to adjust their internal processes and accounting systems to ensure compliance with the new deadline and avoid potential penalties or interest.

The Department of Taxation will provide updated resources, reminders and filing instructions ahead of the 2026 effective date. Businesses should stay informed by visiting tax.nv.gov or contacting the Department directly at (866) 962-3707.
